

PRESS RELEASE

Punjab Cricket Association which is known for its acumen for promotion of game of Cricket, welfare of players, development of infrastructure and well spread regional coaching centers in the state has been pursuing the matter of cricketing reforms seriously. The Annual General Body Meeting held recently had taken a note of the ongoing debate about the involvement of cricketers in the cricketing affairs and other cricketing matters.

The Punjab Cricket Association by and large for the last 35 years is following the policy of having in its selection committee renowned cricketers both men and women and in the other cricketing affairs like coaching etc. Even the Office Bearers of PCA like the Honorary Secretary General is a first class cricketer of repute, former captain of the state is a vice president and many other players are in the Executive Committee.

According to Mr. G.S. Walia, Honorary Secretary of the association, the give further impetus to the feelings of the players General Body has decided to associate two more players to the Executive Committee one women and one men. Sh. Bhupinder Singh Sr. former international Cricketer is in the men category and Ms. Shailla Jain former Punjab Captain (first class player) of the state in the women category.

All decisions on cricketing matters are taken by the former cricketers and members implement 100% of the decisions and there is no interference of the administrators in the cricketing matters which are implemented in Toto.
